In October 2001, I started adventurous journey called Ph.D. First weeks felt so lonely, sometimes I wondered if I will make it to the end. Now, at the end, I feel everything but lonely. In the last 4 years I have met so many people that made my life in Groningen unforgettable.

First of all sincere thanks go to my promotor Diek Duifhuis. With your experience, guidance and help I finally arrived at the end of this journey. You were a great mentor and a great support in all ‘ups and downs’ of my Ph.D. life. Secondly, I would like to thank Remco, who taught me and helped me with so many things, and every time I would come with the sentence: ‘Ik heb één vraag voor jou’ he answered many more questions than just that one. Alle Meije, big THANKS for your express help with the Samenvatting, and for ‘opening my eyes’ and your guidance in the world of \LaTeX and Linux. Gerke, I enjoyed all the discussions, thesis suggestions, Dutch lessons, laughing, grumpiness and friendliness we exchanged in our office. Lavi and Carlos, my two ‘new’ office-mates, it was great sharing room 125 with you. I wish to thank Esther for her comments and fruitful discussions; Anita and Hans for their help with the data acquisition, and all the subjects for participating in the experiments.

I would like to mention other colleagues: Gabriel, Kurt, Erwin, Theo, Bas, Ben, Lambrecht, Sietze, Doekle, BCN office - Aafke, Britta, Diana, Tinie and all the ‘NICers’. Special thanks go to Rob, who always had a solution for belasting - verblijfsvergunning - visa related problems, and Theo Jurriens for astronomy adventures and for being a good friend.

Many people, not directly related to my project or to this thesis, still contributed to my life in Groningen: Stasinos, Charmaine, Ralf, Bloemkool, Zuzana, Angeliki, Lena, Christian, Vale, Ilir, Giorgio, Alfredo, Paquito, Koen, Niklas, Burhan, Heidi, Edit, Lara, Edwin...

Next to them, ex Yugoslavian and Latin-American community and unforgettable parties with the mixture of gypsy music, šljivovica, salsa and tequila - Andreja, Andrija, Bondžić, Bore, Brani, Danijela, Diana, Goran, Haris, Ivone, Janja, Kaća, Milena, Mirela, Mladen, Primož, Zvezdana, and Paola, Gillito, Patricio, Anita, Cesar, Carolita, Francisco, Marco Antonio...

Life in Groningen would never be the same without some special people, my fruit family that always brightened up grey Dutch days. Ananas, Arty, Naranja, Mela, Mrkva, Kiwi, Lemona, IL bacio per tutti!

This is the point where I would like to mention people that although not physically in Groningen were great ‘cyber support’. Najveće hvala mojoj obitelji bez čijeg razumijevanja i svakodnevne podrške ne znam da li bih pisala ove redove. Nakon toga veliko hvala mojim prijateljima: Igoru, Ireni, Ivici, Martini i Nataši, koji su barem u cyber svijetu bili uvijek uz mene.

At the end, I would like to thank Primož who was not only an excellent chef but great friend. And once again, I want to express gratitude to my paranimfen: Joyce Boucard and Branislava Čurčić-Blake. Without you two, life in Groningen, doing the Ph.D., and organizing the promotie would be so much more difficult and so less enjoyable. Drage Joyce i Brani, lista je preduga, pa da skratim, veliko HVALA za...SVE! My dear Ananasi Ta-wifE-beST frIend-Mother-piOnirka, Mickey Mouse is genius!

And now the hardest part is to come, I have to finish the last sentence of my thesis, I have to end this wonderful journey, and say goodbye to my Groningen life and all the people there...
